PRICE, 5 CENTS

DEERING DEFEATS RAFAELLO.

Harlem had a dark cloudy sky and a very heavy track for the last day of its two weeks meeting, but nevertheless there was a great crowd on hand and it was treated to some really good sport. Owing to the condition of the track there was wholesale scratching and what had seemed to be one of the best cards of the local season was scratched to pieces.

The meeting of Rafaello, Deering and Crocket at a mile and a sixteenth was the main feature and it resulted in a cracking good contest. Rafaello and Deering hooked up at the head of the stretch and from there to the wire fought desperately for every inch of ground. Betting on this event was very spirited, Rafaello being the choice at about even money, while 8 to 5 was offered against Crocket. Walter Gam thought his colt Deering would win and told all his friends so. The consequence was that he was backed from 5 to 1 down to 3 to 1.

At the first attempt Starter Dwyer sent the trio away on their journey on about even terms. Passing the stand Deering went to the front and, closely pressed by Crocket, the pair threw mud in Rafaello's face for a half mile. Then Crocket gave it up and for an instant Deering had things all his own way. On the far turn, though, Jenkins, with Rafaello, moved up, and a cry went up, "Rafaello wins! Rafaello wins!" It certainly appeared that he did have Deering safe; but the latter proved to be as game as a pebble, and when Flick called upon him he responded like an aristocrat. At the eighth post Rafaello for an instant was in front, but the pressure was too great and later on he hung a bit. This cost him the race, for not for an instant did Deering falter and through sheer gameness won a handsomely fought battle by a short head. Crocket was beaten off and eased up in the stretch. The victory was an exceptionally popular one, and both the colt and Flick were warmly applauded when they returned to the stand.

Of the eleven entered in the seven-furlong handicap only four started, and Richard J., with top weight, 114 pounds, and conceding great chunks of weight to every other starter, was made favorite. He ran a good race, but not good enough to beat Maceo and had to be content with second place. Maceo was thrown in the handicap with 98 pounds, and after trailing his field to the head of the stretch he shot to the front like a flash and won running away. He is a horse of good class, and with 98 pounds up and in the mud it would take the best of them to beat him.

Jockey W. Jones, with his face all bandaged up, had the mount on Prince Blazes in the mile and a quarter race. The Prince was an odds-on choice and on paper seemed a certainty. All the heavy bettors and "cinch players" backed him, but Jones fixed them. He held the Prince an unreasonably long distance out of it down the back stretch and allowed Tentons to steal a long lead. In fact he waited until the race was practically over before he made his run. His ride was sharply criticised. Tentons won the race rather handily, making it two wins during the day for that popular owner, Tom Barrett.

Mr. Barrett's other win was with Barrack in the seven furlong two-year-old race. Thrive, for some unknown reason, was made favorite at evens over Barrack, but after leading a greater part of the journey he weakened and Barrack won as he pleased. The grandstand fairly went wild over the victory of Barrack.

Alabaster won the initial six furlong scramble in a fierce drive from Harry Thoburn and Kenmore Queen. His win was a lucky one. Harry Thoburn was a trifle short or he would have have beaten him, and again, had Mathews been able to keep Kenmore Queen in on the turns she would have been hard to beat.

The last race was nothing more than an exercise gallop for Molo. It was at a mile and before half the journey had been traversed Molo had the first money won. Newsgatherer, the favorite, ran one of his bad races and was beaten off.

FROM HARLEM TO HAWTHORNE.

Harlem's fortnight of racing ended yesterday and for the two weeks to come Hawthorne will be the local center of attraction for those who admire the gallant thoroughbred. At Harlem the attendance has been constantly good, the racing excellent and well conducted, and, in the main, good racing weather has prevailed. The arrival of new horses from St. Louis and elsewhere served to stimulate interest in the sport, and quite a number of notable performances at various distances were recorded.

The program for the first week at Hawthorne has been issued by Secretary Harry Kuhl, and is made up with his usual careful attention to details designed to meet the capacities and peculiarities of the hundreds of horses now quartered at the local tracks. Steeplechases are provided for Monday, Thursday and Saturday, all over the short course. Some "leppers" new to the course will probably make their local debut in these events, giving an access of zest to this popular branch of the Hawthorne racing. A mile and a half dash Monday is the longest flat race of the week, but it is noticeable that of the thirty-three flat races in the week's program sixteen are at a mile or over. With additional stables drifting in from St. Louis, the Northern Circuit and a few returning from the east there is abundant assurance of more than enough horses to furnish satisfactory fields and good contests throughout Hawthorne's third period of summer racing.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Imp's running down east has led to caustic criticism by the New York turf scribes. Last Wednesday her trainer, Charley Brossman, undertook to square matters by thrashing John Boden, a turf writer who had declared that the running of Imp this year did more to keep alive turf scandal than any other incident of racing. The turf writer was not much hurt; but it will be a long while before Brossman recovers from the drubbing he received. He was a wreck when he was taken from the track.

The track stewards had him up before them afterwards but after surveying him concluded to let him off with a reprimand. A dispatch touching the matter says: "A civil suit has been begun against Brossman, and as he is a nonresident of the state his mare will probably be attached as well as his winnings at Brighton, which have not yet been paid over. It is understood that Mr. Hitchcock of the stewards, inclined to more drastic punishment for Imp's trainer, and there is no doubt that any other infraction of discipline will mean Brossman's exile. The running of his mare is being looked into.

Trainer Jennings says that Briar Sweet's lameness will not be lasting. He will keep her in training, and hopes to have her ready for all the fall handicaps. May Hempstead also shows lame after strong work, but warms out of it in a race. Banastar, the Brooklyn Handicap winner, will be seen in the stakes at Saratoga. He is in fine form and ought to win with ease. Teral has gone to Saratoga to ride. He will remain at the springs during the month.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The New York World says that the entire Fleischmann stable is for sale. The young men racing this string, it is said, are not in harmony.
That is to say, one of the Fleischmanns likes racing while the other has no use for it, and rather leans toward baseball and other athletic sports. The stable has not been extraordinarily successful this season, though it has paid its way with Maribert, Midsummer, Sakhrat and one or two others. These three two-year-olds would bring a big price if offered for sale, and the gossips say that the formal announcement of the auction and dissolution of partnership will soon be made.

BIG YEARLING SALE.

Monday evening, August 21, promptly at 7:30, at Union Stock Yards, seventy-five yearling colts and fillies, the property of Runnymede, Spendthrift, Hartland, Leonatus, Faustiana and Melbourne Studs and several individual owners, will be sold. These yearlings comprise some of the best from these representative Kentucky and Missouri breeders, and include brothers and sisters to many first-class turf performers. The list of relations is too long to enumerate here, but catalogs can be had by addressing Woodard & Shanklin, Lexington, Ky., under whose management the sale will be held.

Winner—B. c. by Sir Dixon—Belle Carter.
Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won easily. This race was run on a track covered with water, the result of a severe rainstorm. Dan Cupid liked the slop. So did Maurice. Fly By Night and Lindall quit at the end. The race was not truly run.

SALE OF OAKWOOD YEARLINGS.

Saturday, August 12, at Hawthorne paddock, promptly at 12 o'clock, Woodard & Shanklin will sell the Oakwood Stud yearlings, property of Messrs. Applegate & McMeekin. They include the get of Fonso, Lamplighter, Wadsworth, Victory, Prince Royal, Badge and Slepner. It is a well known fact that Oakwood Stud sends out no maidens, nearly all their matrons being famous producers, and it is better than even money that many winners will come from this bunch.

Time, 13, 25½, 38½, 52, 1:05½, 1:19½.

Winner—Ch. g. by Springbok—Emerald.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won hand ridden but out to the last ounce; second and third driving to the limit. Alabaster ran a good, game race. He was under severe punishment from the head of the stretch home. If the same race were to be run over again in the near future Harry Thoburn would beat Alabaster. He was a trifle short, besides Bassinger rode a weak finish on him. Kenmore Queen lost much ground on every turn. She would bear out and try as Mathews would he could not prevent this. Tony Licalzi was in close to the rail and pocketed through the last three-eighths of a mile. The going he raced in was deepest. Outside of the first three there was no contest.

Winner—Br. c. by Bersan—Fable.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won cleverly; the next two were driving. Barrack is an extra good colt over a distance of ground. He is especially fond of the mud, and under a good ride ran one of his best races. Nutt laid away with him until the stretch was reached and then came through with a rush. Thrive was rated into submission in the first part of it by Caviar. Both tired badly at the end. Dick Furber and Rosa Diah were beaten before going a half mile.

Winner—Ch. c. by Sir Dixon—Vassar.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a hard drive of two; third eased up. Deering ran one of his best races today. He displayed great gameness through the stretch. Rafaello got to him at the eighth post and brought him to a drive. From that point the pair had it hammer and tongs to the wire. Jenkins rode Rafaello with poor judgment. He made his move too soon and made up his ground too rapidly. He also became a trifle careless in the stretch. Rafaello will turn the tables on Deering the next time they meet on similar terms. Crocket stopped at the eighth post and was eased up.

Scratched—13813 Tenby, 104; (13534) Graziella, 107.

Winner—B. h. by Sir Dixon—Katy Did.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third were doing their best. In the deep going weig at a great figure and in this respect Macco had a lot of the best of it. Knight rode him to perfection. He waited on the others to the three-eighths post and then made his move and at the head of the stretch he had the race in hand. Fervor ran a good race. Maggie Davis was rank and almost pulled Jed Waldo out of the saddle down the backstretch. When she collapsed though, she sprawled all over the track.

Scratched—(13841) Canace, 101; 12469 O'Connell, 114; (13680) Newsgatherer, 100; 13751 Serrano, 98; (13534) Graziella, 109; 13824 Sim W., 100; (13748) Helen's Pet, 100.

Winner—B. c. by Teuton—No No.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won under the whip, but with something left; second driving hard. Teutons was skilfully rated in front and stole a long lead on W. Jones, who rode Prince Blazes. In fact he stole the race from the Prince. Jones seemingly thought he was riding in a ten-mile race and laid an unreasonable distance out of it. When he made up his mind to make his move the race was over. It was a miserable piece of riding judgment. Einstein was prominent for about three-quarters and then retired. Mary Prather was simply a filler-in.

Scratched—(13676) Egbart, 108; 13570 Croesus, 105; 13772 Hanlight, 92; (13772) Barton, 105.

Winner—Ch. c. by Pardee—Ontstep.

Off at the first break. Start good. Won easily up; second and third well in hand. Molo was on a track that suited him to perfection and he made a show of his field. Blue Lick made a strong bid in the stretch, but could not get within reach of Molo. George H. Ketcham ran a fair race and Newsgatherer a disgraceful one. The latter stopped as if short after going a half mile. Hanan was interfered with and cut off a dozen times. The field was badly strung out at the finish.

Scratched—13727 Briggs, 105; 13811 Pintan, 92; 13774 Papa Harry, 103; 13649 Ed Tipton, 101; 13727 Little Singer, 103; 13842 Annawan, 97.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler) harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment. The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

PEDIGREE BLANKS.

On linen paper, artistically edged in colors, ruled and arranged for six generations of sires and dams of individuals and their ancestor. Ten cents each, $1.00 per dozen, $3.50 per hundred. No owner of a stallion should be without a supply.

Time, 25:51, 1:20, 1:47, 2:01. Winner—Blk. m. by Pirate of Penzance—Anna Clay. Post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Mamie G. reveled in the going. Rowland Duette was best of the others. Friskal and Elsmore suffered from poor handling. Saratoga ran well for seven furlongs. So did Violin. Helen Paxton's owner said his mare has to wear blinkers and that they filled with mud. She was nearly blinded, as was her rider.

Scratched—13705 Pinochle, 104; 13698 Leaseman, 103; 13792 Domestic, 102; 13787 Tewanda, 101; 13763 Annie Oldfield, 99.
